

Table 11.2 Generalist Reflections from a New BHC

GATHER Indicator	Actions Taken	Plans
Generalist: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• I see people with all health challenges, including physical, mental and social health challenges.</li> <li>• I am serving the entire practice population, including all ethnicities, races, and ages.</li> <li>• I adapt my approach to use language, models of health, and practices to ensure cultural responsiveness.</li> <li>• I provide preventive, acute and chronic condition care.</li> </ul>	Weeks 1-4 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Seeing mostly mental</li> <li>- Asked team to involve me with patients with chronic conditions at huddle 3 times; saw 2 last week</li> <li>- Have seen 3 teens, no young children – a little worried about my skills in this area</li> <li>- Seeing more people form minority groups, particularly after a talk I had about this with a couple of doctors at lunch</li> <li>- I am okay with some cultures but need to study others more.</li> </ul>	Weeks 1-4 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Set up a meeting with nurse that works with patients with diabetes; talk about how I might be able to help</li> <li>- Talk with my BHC 2 about short book to read about interventions for children</li> <li>- Talk with my clinical lead about training I could go to on behavioral interventions for young children – I would like to eventually start a pathway to help young parents.</li> <li>- I am attending all of the programs my system offers on providing care to people from different cultures – I’ll talk with my BHC 2 about this, too.</li> </ul>